

Dear All Star Team Member and parent(s),

Please read the following policies thoroughly and sign this with your parents in agreement with our policies.

Performance Policy

You will come to all performance rehearsals with EXCELLENT knowledge of the routine, so that we can spend rehearsal time on formations, critique, and perfecting. Although you have made the All Star Team, it is your responsibility to learn the routines. You are not guaranteed to perform in any event (regardless of payment), unless you can perform the routine(s) without making a mistake, and have excellent kicks/form. If you are pulled or need to be moved from more than one routine/event because of inadequate knowledge, you may be released from the team. (It is discouraging and unfair to those that come prepared.)

Membership Policy

If you are released from the All Star Team for inadequate knowledge, violation of a Mid American rule, or any other reason, you will not be able to re-tryout again in future years. If you are released from, or quit your high school team, you will be immediately removed from the All Star Team. If you are suspended from your home team, you are suspended from the All Star Team for the same duration as your home team suspension. Specific expectations of conduct will be sent to all team members for events that require overnight stays. Parent signatures will be required on these expectation policies.

Refund Policy

Refund policies are stated in the registration material for each event. Please read over the refund policy for each event before registering.

Uniform Policy

Team members must be in full uniform for all events. Full uniform consists of all black shoes and socks, bodysuit, and pants; the performance top, and poms. If for any reason, any member does not have these items, they will not be allowed to perform. No extra items (pins, bows, etc) may be added to the uniform. All clothes worn under the required uniform must be all black in color. Any member who does not follow the stated uniform policy will not be allowed to perform. Hair and make-up also must be done according to the instruction given by the director(s) for each event. Violation of the uniform policy may lead to being released from the team at the Director's discretion.

We understand the above stated policies, and agree to comply with the terms.
